

New York State My Brother's Keeper Community Challenge
How Your Community Can Improve Outcomes for Boys and Young Men of Color

New York State's My Brother's Keeper (NYSMBK) initiative is designed to encourage school districts, colleges and universities, and community groups to join forces in this critical

Step #3: Conduct a Policy and Data Review and Formulate Recommendations for Action

Immediately following your Local Action Summit, direct a working group of pertinent stakeholders, including students, to examine existing local policies, programs, and practices in search of ways to introduce or expand on existing efforts to better serve the needs of the community's youth.

The working group should assess the impact of both existing and proposed programs. Within 120 days of your commitment, this body should produce a report with recommendations for action on your selected areas of focus related to the NYSMBK priorities as listed below, standards for tracking and sharing data across public agencies and community partners, and structural recommendations for institutionalizing the effort until goals are reached.
